Award-Winning Author Visits Pickaway County to Discuss Dreamland & America’s Drug Epidemic

Pickaway County organizations have joined together to fight the drug epidemic that is overwhelming our country.

Sam Quinones’ Dreamland has been the topic of the One Book, One Community’s book discussion this year. Its focus is on the importance of fighting the opiate epidemic in our country and community.

April 27th Events:

6:00-6:45 p.m. Book Signing | Gymnasium

6:00-7:00 p.m. Resource Fair | Gymnasium
State and local organizations and agencies, including treatment centers, law enforcement, and medical professionals will be available to discuss their role in combating the opiate epidemic.

7:00-7:50 p.m. Author Presentation | Auditorium
Author Sam Quinones will discuss his book Dreamland and the opiate epidemic impacting America.

7:50-8:15 p.m. Question and Answers | Auditorium
Moderated by Tim Colburn, President and CEO, Berger Health System

Members of the audience are invited to ask questions regarding the presentation, the drug epidemic, and the author’s experiences researching and writing his work.

8:15-9:00 p.m. Resource Fair and Book Signing

Quinones will be at Circleville High School
380 Clark Dr Circleville, OH. | April 27, 2017